The 10 Fallacies of the Times We Live in

There is a world of publishing business paralleling newspapers and magazines but not touching the general public. Its products are called "trade magazines"—and they bring their share of humor and information and thought to the workers and managers of the particular business each one serves.

For instance, a little publication called the Shelby Plugger reminds me that sometimes a preacher must feel as full as an editor on a bad day, for it comes up with this story:

An Indian had attended church services on a Sunday morning. The sermon had been very loud in spots and the Indian, although a good Christian, was not greatly impressed. Later, when asked how he had enjoyed the sermon, he said, "High wind! Big thunder! No rain!"

And another trade publication, Sterling Sparks, issued by the Sterling Abrasives Division of the Cleveland Quarries Co., Triffin, Ohio, "for its workers and other friends in industry," prints a striking piece called—but here it is:

The Ten Fallacies of the Twentieth Century

(By Fred G. Clark and Richard S. Rimanoczy)

1. That peace among nations can be secured by any means other than superior military strength on the part of the peace-loving peoples.
2. That international friendship can be secured through gifts rather than through genuine common principles and purposes.
3. That the moral character of a nation as a whole can be better than the moral character of its citizens as individuals.
4. That anybody's opinion as to how to run the country is as good as anybody else's.
5. That government can give things to the people without first taking them away from the people.
6. That if we keep experimenting long enough we will find a substitute for an honest day's work.
7. That somewhere and somehow there simply must be a substitute for honest money.
8. That somewhere in the depths of "scientific socialism" there must be a substitute for the love of one's neighbor.
9. That stealing is not stealing when the majority of the voters vote in favor of it.
10. That personal economic security, guaranteed by government, is possible without the loss of personal liberty.

State Trooper Ollie Andrews of Brinkley, who investigated, said that Schratz was driving one car toward Memphis, and the other was being driven by J. E. Caffey, 38, of Little Rock.

Hope Is Almost Given Up for Labor Unity

By MAUREEN GOTHLIN

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Union sources last but gave up hope today that the CIO and AFL can proceed on their chosen path toward labor unity.

The two parent unions ran into a roadblock of AFL Teamsters yesterday. Union sources here predicted will stymie any minute union—at least for some time.

The executive board of the powerful teamsters union, largest in the AFL, yesterday refused to go along with a proposed AFL-CIO non-aggression pact. This agreement to ban raiding by rival unions was to be the "cornerstone" of CIO-AFL unity plans.

Dave Beck, president of the Teamsters, said his group has a better approach to labor peace and unity than that taken by the two parent unions.

At the moment union sources here won't say what they think of Beck's ideas. But some see in them the strong hand of John L. Lewis who also has "unifying" ambitions.

Beck, in Miami with his executive board, said that all labor unions—Lewis' united mine workers, the railroad brotherhood and all other independents—should be included in any no-raid agreement.

He also said the teamsters board feels that Lewis and his mine-workers should be invited back into the AFL.

Lewis recently has been conferring behind closed doors with Beck and with President Dave McDonald of the CIO Steelworkers, one of the largest unions in the CIO. Lewis is reportedly hopes to start a labor unity movement through these two unions.

The Teamsters action yesterday was something of a setback for AFL President George Meany, who had predicted that all AFL unions would sign the proposed no-raid agreement last December.

But, go make it effective, rival unions in both organizations must sign up also.

Beeson Wins Approval, Demos Gleeful

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Democratic leaders in the Senate were quietly jubilant today, despite a 45-42 defeat in their campaign against confirmation of Albert C. Beeson to the National Labor Relations Board.

Sen. Hill (D-La.), who took a leading part in the floor fight against Beeson yesterday, said the outcome would "give the Democrats a clear-cut issue which we will undoubtedly raise from time to time" before next November's election.

Beeson was confirmed after bitter debate. Accused by some Democrats of making "false and misleading" statements during his confirmation hearing, he was given a vote of confidence by all but one of the Republicans present. Republicans said his integrity stood unquestioned and that nothing brought out in lengthy hearings before the Senate Labor Committee had impaired "his reputation for truth and veracity." Some said that he became confused during his testimony but had no intention not to tell.

But Sen. Neely (D-W.Va.) asked the Senate to help him protect President Eisenhower "against the disgrace of putting a man on there who lied five times."

America's Sweetheart, Mary Pickford, at 60 Keeps That Charm That Made Her Famous

By HAL BOYLE

NW YORK, (UP)—"Sure, the Irish drank goat's milk," said Mary Pickford. "That's how I have my vitality—because my ancestors drank goat's milk."

At 60, "America's sweetheart" of yesterday still retains the simple charm that once made her the movie favorite of millions.

"I'm the busiest woman in Beverly Hills—or any other hill," she said, smiling, as we sat in the living room of her hotel suite.

"I have a big house to look after, and my husband, Buddy Rogers, and my business interests—and the children, Ronnie and Roxie."

"Roxie will soon be 12, but she's already four inches taller than I am. She's horse crazy. But I'd rather look forward to her being horse crazy than boy crazy."

Mary also is active in half a dozen philanthropic and charitable enterprises. She recently completed her memoirs for McCall's maga-

Ouachita Valley Funds Requested

WASHINGTON (UP)—H. E. Thatcher, Camden, Ark., vice president of the Ouachita River Valley Association, urged a Senate appropriations subcommittee yesterday to approve money for flood control and navigation improvements on the Ouachita in the fiscal year starting July 1.

Accompanied by Rep. Harris D. Ark., Thatcher outlined these projects and the amount of money sought for each:

1. Navigation, channel and lock maintenance on main stem of the Ouachita from Camden south to the Mississippi River, $446,500 recommended by the Budget Bureau.

2. Completion of the multi-purpose dam at Blakely Mountain on the upper Ouachita River for which $2,367,000 has been recommended by the Budget Bureau.

3. Resurveying and planning of the multi-purpose Degray Dam on the Caddo River, a west bank tributary of the Ouachita, no money recommended by Budget, $15,000.

4. Continued construction of master canals in the drainage programs for the delta regions of northeast Louisiana and southeast Arkansas, Budget Bureau recommended $1,727,000 for canal construction on the Texas River-Nayou Macon project, unspecified additional amount asked for work on other bays, particularly Bartholomew.

5. Completion of flood control and drainage project in the Little Missouri River basin, Budget Bureau recommended $482,000.

6. Construction of the modified nine-foot deep channel in the main stem of the Ouachita River.

McCarthy in Threat to Probe Army

NEW YORK (UP)—Sen. Joseph P. McCarthy (R-N.Y.) was elected the Army's chief counsel and a general from a closed hearing of his investigations subcommittee yesterday and angrily asked how a former major escaped court-martial as a "Fifth Amendment Communist."

Thrown out of the hearing were John G. Adams, chief counsel of the Army, Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zieker, commandant of Camp Kilmer, N. J., and his aides.

After the session McCarthy headily told newsmen he had been questioning an unidentified lieutenant colonel discharge given about an honorable discharge given earliest this month to Dr. Irving Peress, a Queens dentist.

At a morning open session, Peress refused to answer 33 questions about possible communist links, invoking the Fifth Amendment against self-incrimination.

Peress served at Camp Kolmer. He was promoted from captain to major in the reserves last November. He was given an honorable discharge after McCarthy had demanded his court-martial.

It was reported that lieutenant colonel declined to answer some of McCarthy's questions concerning Peress. The officer said it would violate Army regulations.

Then McCarthy ordered Adams to take the stand it was reported but Adams also refused saying he was at the hearing as an observer for Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens. McCarthy later told newsmen Adams asked for time to consult with Stevens.

McCarthy then ordered from the room Adams and all the Army officers except the lieutenant colonel. McCarthy declared he was trying to find out "who is responsible for covering up and protecting Fifth Amendment Communists."

He declared he was "far from satisfied" with the testimony of the lieutenant colonel and Zieker.

"Gen. Zieker gave the most revealing part of the testimony regarding why men like Irving Peress could continue in a service who was known he was Communist," McCarthy said.

"The general said all the evidence heard here was known by him and the Army for a long time."

McCarthy's summary of his testimony angered the general. Zieker called it a colored and slanted version "twisting everything he could so that his version of a truthful one."

ROKs Denounce April Peace Conference

By The Associated Press

South Korea angrily denounced today the Big Four agreement to hold a Korean Peace Conference at Geneva, Switzerland, April 28.

As the Big Four ministers headed home after winding up their 23-day parley, the South Korean government called the scheduled talks, which will include Red China, "fundamentally incompatible with the Korean armistice agreement." There was no assertion however that South Korea would refuse to attend the Geneva talks.

Although the top problems of Germany, Austria and European security were left unsolved, the foreign ministers did agree that question of ending the Indochinese war would be discussed at Geneva. They also promised to "hold an exchange of views" on world disarmament.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles voiced regret at the failure to agree on pressing European problems.

Western high commissioners in Germany moved swiftly to reap possible harvest from the parley. They planned to ask Soviet officials in East Germany to set up four-power talks aimed at easing Russian-imposed barriers between East and West. The big four agreed to try to improve trade and cultural relations between the two German areas.

George Declares Treaty Power Change Is Dead

By JOE ALL

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) said today chances for Senate passage of any constitutional amendment on the treaty powers are dead unless a provision already tentatively approved is stricken out.

This provision, sponsored by the four top Republican Senate leaders, was written into the proposed amendment by a 44-43 vote Wednesday.

It would amend Article VI of the Constitution to require that all future treaties cannot be the supreme law of the land unless made "in pursuance of the Constitution."

George, a leader among the Democrats on foreign affairs voted against the provision on the ground it might cast a shadow over all treaties negotiated and ratified since the Constitution first was approved.

He said in an interview today that the Wednesday vote clearly showed the Senate would not pass any constitutional amendment so long as this provision remained in.

"Too many senators," he said, "have doubts about what the effect of this would be."

Preliminary Talks to Be Written Off

By WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Representatives of the United States and its 16 Korean War allies meet today to decide how to write off the now bypassed preliminary peace talks at Panmunjom.

They were expected to vote to forget about a Communist demand of nearly a month ago that the talks be resumed.

The demand, as well as the knotty problem of breaking the months-long Panmunjom stalemate, dropped into the limbo of academic questions yesterday. The Big Four foreign ministers, in a kind of announcement at their Berlin conference, scheduled a peace conference for April 28 at Geneva, Switzerland. They made the preliminary arrangements supposed to be settled at Panmunjom.

Some members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in interviews yesterday professed to seek a risk of appeasement in the U. S. decision to sit in on a conference attended also by Red China in a diplomatic, not military, capacity.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.) said it is a "very calculated risk" which might bring peace but did not mean a gain for Russia and Communist China.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said he intends to give Secretary of State Dulles "a stern warning of the dangers of appeasement."

And Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) said he would insist on assurances against recognition and demand "a specific answer as to whether this is a preliminary step."

Arthur H. Dean, special ambassador to the Panmunjom negotiations, arranged to fly from New York for the United Nations allies meeting at the State Department today, a Wall Street lawyer and former law partner of Secretary of State Dulles, broke off the Panmunjom talks last Dec. 12 after seven fruitless weeks of negotiations. He vowed not to return until the Communists took back a "perfidy" charge against the United States.

But the Communists refused. The U. N. Allies backed Dean's stand. There the stalemate stood with neither side willing to give in for fear of loss of face—until Jan. 30. The Red negotiators then demanded Dean's return, saying nothing about retracting their accusation.

The Postoffice will have no rural or city delivery nor window service. Mail will be placed in boxes and dispatches as usual and stamps will be available in the lobby vending machine.

Europe Army Hot Dispute in France

PARIS (UP)—The Berlin conference's promise of Indochina peace talks posed a new obstacle today to speedy French action on the hotly disputed European army treaty.

Following Big Four agreement to meet again April 28 to discuss prospects for peace in Asia, even the supporters of the European Defense Community faced this dilemma:

1. Press for the French National Assembly to ratify the army treaty at once, as the United States wants — and perhaps so anger Russia that she would not use her influence with the Chinese Communists and the Communists leaders of the Vietnam rebels to stop the war in Indochina; or

2. Delay the Assembly vote on the army treaty until after the Geneva conference on Korea and Indochina, and run the risk of the American Congress cutting off all important aid to France.

The conservative, neutralist afternoon newspaper Le Monde, an all-out opponent of EDC, probably sounded the rallying cry for the army plan's other numerous foes as it proclaimed last night:

"The army treaty is a trap for France. It is a trap for Europe. It is a trap for the world."

The Real Winner in Big Four Diplomatic Parley Depends on Outcome of Spring Talks

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

BERLIN (UP)—The Big Four foreign ministers have concluded 96 hours and 18 minutes of diplomatic battling in their Berlin conference—and the winner depends on what happens in Geneva and in Paris this spring.

The Asian peace conference which the four ministers agreed to open in Geneva April 28 will determine whether Korea will get unification and a real peace, and whether fighting will end in Indochina.

The French National Assembly in Paris will determine whether the European army containing German divisions is to be created—a project Russia fought to the bitter end in the Berlin conference and which still is the keystone of America's plans for the defense of Europe.

Those were outstanding among the issues at the heart of the grinding arguments which John Foster Dulles of the United States, Anthony Eden of Great Britain, Georges Bidault of France, and V. M. Molotov of the Soviet Union pursued for four weeks here.

There were at least two other questions of critical importance:

1. I Russia ready to roll back the Iron Curtain, even a little?

2. Are the Western Powers ready to recognize and legalize communism's hold over the Chinese mainland—more than one-sixth of the earth?

The Berlin conference at least gave the answer to both of those questions—a resounding "no."

The ministers held six secret sessions and 21 that were fully publicized. It was the first Big Four foreign ministers conference in five years.

The arguments including private talks between Dulles and Molotov on atomic energy, turned on six major subjects:

German unification: The West said this was the conference's major business, and Eden proposed for all three, a unity plan beginning with free all-German elections under Big Four and neutral supervision. Molotov

Heavy Patrol Guards Site of H-Bomb

By WILLIAM J. WAUGH

PEARL HARBOR (UP)—Tough little destroyer escorts today patrol the Pacific west of the H-bomb proving grounds on a 24-hour alert.

They watch the skies and plumb the ocean depth with electronic eyes, alert for any strange submarines or—in the words of an officer—"any sneak attempt by hostile parties 'to set up shop' on deserted islands."

These sea patrols are closely allied with air patrols sweeping the skies from the Marshalls to Japan. The patrols go on all the time, but now with hints of impending H-bomb tests at Eniwetok, their presence is of even more significance.

Having just returned from one of these sea patrols, can say that there is more than the usual alertness among the radar and sonar crews.

Everyone in the Pacific is tight-lipped about the test which soon may explode "the world's most awesome weapon. But you may be sure the Navy is quite aware of it."

'Ma Kettle' Ends Contract With MGM

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Marjorie Main, who is as much a character off the screen as on, may retire from acting. Then again she may not.

The veteran actress is coming to the end of her MGM contract March 23, and she confesses, "I'm counting the days." As of March 23, she'll be a free woman.

I saw her in the gomey dressing room she uses at Universal-International, where she has done a sizable number of loanouts.

I asked her how long she had been at MGM, and she guessed around 14 years. She actually came out here in 1938 to recreate her stage role in "The Women."

How does she feel about leaving? "Well, I'm sorry about leaving a lot of good friends at Metro."

she remarked, "But I wasn't too happy about the last two pictures I did there. One was 'The Long, Long Trailer,' and I had only two tiny scenes in the picture. One of them was cut out."

"Then did 'Rose Marie.' They decided that something was needed to relieve the plot so Bert Lahr and I did a musical number. Oh, I mean it was a lot of work. Took us six weeks in all. And then they threw the number out of the picture because it interfered with the plot."

Miss Main admitted that she was toying with the idea of retiring. "It might be fun to just do nothing after working all your life," she said. "If she did continue pictures, it would merely be one a year, she added."

But she also might return to the stage. Max Gordon has offered her the second company of "Lullaby," which Mary Boland is doing on Broadway.

At present she is starring in "The Matchmakers," a lusty spoof. She plays a Scandinavian

Mrs. John Teeter was the Monday guest of her daughter, Mrs. Jim Sloan and family in Little Rock and was accompanied by little Miss Kitty Clay Sloan, who spent the cook in this one, and folks are already rumormongering that the picture will hatch a series.

I asked her about the Kettle series. The fabulously successful low budget films have apparently come to the end of their run. There are still two to be released, but co-star Percy Kilbride has said he'll do no more.

"It's entirely up to Percy," said Miss Main. "I love that little fellow he's such a fine performer. I think he got fed up with the series after the last one. Why, they put poor little Percy on a straw mat and dragged him all over the back lot. Then they had his double slide down a long slide into a swimming pool. Percy had to stand in the water up to his neck and he was terrified. He'd never been in a pool before."

"They should realize at our age you can't do all this physical stuff. You just don't have the energy that younger people do. We're too old to be running around. Percy's two years older than I am." He's 65.

She added that she is constantly amazed at the success of the "nice and corny" Kettle pictures. During a tour in Indiana, a theater man told her the series outdrew all other pictures he played. What is the secret?

As a foreign observer gave her a hint: "Those pictures have such amazing vitality." She guesses weekend with her grand parents.

Mrs. Harold Pollock and son, Carey Stephen, of Oklahoma City, Okla. are spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones.

Al-C T. L. Whitmarsh left Sunday for Tampa, Fla., where he will be stationed. He and his family have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lody Whitmarsh. Mrs. Whitmarsh and their daughter will join him later.

Friends of Mrs. Arthur Turner will regret that she underwent major surgery at St. Michael's Hospital, Texarkana on Monday.

By JAMES MORRISSEY

ITAM, Japan, (UP) — Marilyn Monroe, who raised the blood pressure of 65,000 troops in her four-day tour of Korea, returned to Japan tonight and said "I wish I could have seen more of them."

"The way they looked up at me and said 'Oh, Marilyn' is the most wonderful thing I ever saw," the blonde actress said.

Miss Monroe hurried off an air force plane at Itami Air Base near Osaka at 11:10 p. m., 50 minutes ahead of schedule and had to wait half an hour in the base coffee shop before her husband, Joe DiMaggio, arrived to greet her.

DiMaggio clamped his arm up to his bride, said "Well, how are you," gave Marilyn a brief kiss and said "Oh, Marilyn, I've found a place in Osaka that has very good pizza."

Before Joe arrived, Marilyn and Mrs. Lefty O'Doul, who accompanied the calendar girl on the Korea trip, discussed the enthusiastic reception Miss Monroe received from the GIs.
